Known in Eastern traditions as the Precious Snow Mountain, The Center of the Universe, the Navel of the World, and the Cosmic Pillar that unites Heaven and Earth, Mt. Kailash's nearly 22,000 foot summit has never been reached by any human being, but its 33-mile pilgrimage path has beckoned the faithful for centuries.

In May and June of this year, the Venerable Lama Gyaltzen of the Maui Dharma Center and friends made a sacred, transcendent journey on this formidable and magnificent pilgrimage path around Mt. Kailash. The Center is pleased to present this unique and rare adventure in photos taken by Lama Gyaltzen and Pilgrimage Friends. Slide show narrated by Lama Gyaltzen. In addition, enjoy the screening "Kailash—Return To Tibet", a movie by Emmy award winning filmmaker, Dr. Tom Vendetti.
